Final Rehearsals Are Held For Comedy By Juniors

Final rehearsals are being held for the annual spring class play of Salem High School Friday and Saturday nights at the High school auditorium under the direction of L. T. Drennon, public speaking instructor.

"Dear Me," this year's production, will be a comedy of three acts, with music. Thirteen characters take part in the play that was made famous by Hale Hamilton and Grace LaRue.

The theme of the play concerns mostly a young girl, "April Bahr," played by Miss Dorothy Detwiler, who is a servant in a home for failures, established by the father of a son who turned out to be a failure.

It is both comic and sad, this home for failures, which serves as the background of the first act. It is here that April meets "Edgar Craft," played by Alton Allen, the hero of the play, and they engage most of the attention of the audience throughout the show.

There is an admirable supporting cast that furnish a lot of comedy. The music for the show will be sung, sung by Miss Detwiler and others in connection with the story.

Plenty of room seats are left for both nights. Members of the junior class are selling them, and tickets can be obtained and reserved at the door.

Juniors in charge of this ticket sale state that all indications point to full houses both nights. The class considers this year's play the finest they have ever staged.

PROBERS EXAMINE ANOTHER BATCH OF WIRE MESSAGES

Search Through Private Telegrams Has Been Fruitless.

MAY CALL PALMER BEFORE PROBERS

Underwood Used Influence In McLean's Behalf, Is Charge.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The investigators' glaring searchlight again today was turned upon the private intimate telegraph correspondence of E. B. McLean, wealthy Washington and Cincinnati publisher, and Ex-Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall.

Continuing its search, which thus far has been fruitless, for telegrams which would show that certain members of the committee secretly passed out information to witnesses, the committee examined another large bunch of Western Union and Postal messages.

New light was thrown upon the persistent, but unsuccessful efforts to check the senate oil investigating committee from examining McLean about the famous $100,000 "loan" which he made to Ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, in checks that never were cashed.

A fresh batch of telegrams, disclosing the attempted manipulation of political influence were read into the record of the oil investigation. They showed that every possible pressure was brought to bear on McLean's behalf, principally by A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general in the Wilson administration, but that all such efforts failed because of the "stubbornness" of Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Montana, the dominant figure of the committee.

Underwood Also Mentioned

One telegram told McLean that "was all off" that Walsh was insistent upon examining him and that McLean should prepare himself to go to Washington for testimony.

The messages revealed that McLean's friends were attempting to have "Underwood use his influence on Walsh." Walsh quickly denied that Senator Underwood, Democrat, of Alabama, candidate for Democratic presidential nomination, ever interceded on McLean's behalf.

Walsh did say, however, that he raised no objections when Underwood asked him if he would allow Palmer's letter to the committee explaining McLean's "loan" to Fall to go into the Congressional Record. Walsh said Underwood told him he had been requested to have the letter inserted into the record.

The names of Francis H. McAdoo, and his father William G. McAdoo were mentioned in a message which McLean sent to Washington from Palm Beach.

Most of the telegrams today were signed by John Major and W. O. (Continued on fourth page.)

Refusal To Resign Brings Daugherty Senators' Support

Passage Of Resolution To Force Administration Into Defense.

ACTION TO COME AFTER A HEARING

Attorney General To Quit Regardless Of Outcome Of Case.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate judgment was in motion again today to grind out authority for a "solicitor" of Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty on charges of neglect of duty.

While the attorney general calmly went to Chicago, a thousand miles from the scene of the battle, the senate was stripped for action on the Wheeler resolution, providing a special investigation into his conduct of the department of justice.

Friends and foes of Daugherty were agreed that passage of the resolution would force the administration into a vigorous defense of the attorney general. The maze of charges flung at him have involved practically the whole administration for they were aimed at his conduct of war fraud cases, the Veterans Bureau investigation, prosecution of prohibition violations and the oil scandal among others.

It was final today that the attorney general would not resign until after he had made a complete defense of the senatorial charges. Later, regardless of the outcome, he will voluntarily retire from the cabinet. Even though his record should ultimately be approved by the senate, serious illness in his immediate family will impel his retirement from public life.

This position of the attorney general has apparently been approved by the president. At the series of conferences which preceded Daugherty's departure for the west, the attorney general was reported to have won the president over to his viewpoint. The president's decision was reached after Daugherty had been vigorously defended by Senator Frank B. Willis, Republican of Ohio, who succeeded the late President Harding in the senate.

Willis was said to have told the president bluntly that Daugherty's dismissal now would split the Republican party wide open, bring discredit upon the whole administration and send the party into the next election in a weakened condition.

Rally To His Defense

For Daugherty, the political die was cast. He has invited the investigation and urged his handful of friends in the senate to support it. In addition, on the eve of his departure for the west, he tossed a final defiance to his foes who vainly sought to compel his resignation from the cabinet.

"It's not my purpose," said Daugherty, "to even consider tendering my resignation as attorney general until after a fair hearing on the charges preferred against me."

Final defiance spurred the attorney general's friends in the senate to rally in his defense. They sought not to prevent enactment of the Wheeler resolution but to organize administration ranks in opposition to the Democratic insurgent plan of naming a "handpicked" committee to conduct the investigation.

With Democrats and insurgent Republicans united on the committee slate, selected by Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana, author of the investigation, friends of Daugherty were doomed to defeat.

The coalition slate was headed by Senator Brookhart, Republican of Iowa, an insurgent leader, as chairman, Senator Jones, Republican, Washington; Senator McLean, Republican, of Connecticut; Senator Russell, Democrat, Arizona; and Wheeler, himself. Selection of this committee was even conceded by the attorney general's supporters.

Action of administration senators opposing this slate was in direct contrast to their previous actions in urging Daugherty's resignation. It was freely reported that the attorney general's single-handed defense—which has won the admiration of party leaders on both sides—forced administration senators under his banner.

RULING IS SOUGHT ON CARD DEPUTIES

Exception Taken To Crabbe Announcement On Dry Law Officers.

Columbus, Feb. 28.—Gov. Donahoe today asked Atty. Gen. Crabbe for an official ruling on the legality of the appointment of "card deputies" in the state prohibition department.

This afternoon the governor will confer with Prohibition Director McDonald relative to the matter, with a view of disposing with these deputies. It was said.

The governor recommended that provision be made for the appointment of 50 salaried inspectors to be permanently employed by the department. He declared that the "card men" who have been operating extensively were, under his administration, compelled to furnish bonds of $2,000 each.

Atty. Gen. Crabbe declared "card deputies" have been serving in that capacity, both in violation of law. They have searched public places a "state officers" without search warrants, and serving as "vice policemen" under warrants of mayors. They have not been appointed in conformity with law, Crabbe charged.

Seventy such deputies operate in Ohio, earning a compensation before whom they arraign their prey he said.

Exception to Crabbe's announcement that the law does not provide for so-called "card deputies" was voiced by Thomas H. Hare, speaker of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League. Hare declared the Miller law provides for card deputies when officers fail to enforce prohibitory laws.

In reply, Crabbe stated the law specifies the governor shall cause to be appointed special deputies at salary of $10 daily when in service. They are clothed with full authority, but "card deputies" have no authority, Crabbe said.

YOUTH VIOLATES PAROLE; ARRESTED

20 YEARS AGO

(Issue of Feb. 28, 1904.)

Work was begun Friday on the clearing of the space for a new building at the works of the W. J. Clark company, Depot-st.

Stanley & Reeves opened their carpet and house furnishing store, 29 Broadway, Saturday.

A number of young men of the Salem pottery have taken up the matter of organizing a second baseball team for the coming season. It will be known as the Shamrocks.

On Monday Andrew Maxwell of Washingtonville, who has not had a birthday for eight years, will round out 72 years. He is about the oldest resident of the village. He was born in Homer C. Boyle, superintendent of the Salem Gas Light company, was at the office Friday afternoon after an illness which covered a period of five or six weeks.

Word has been received here of the death of William Teegarden, 88, former resident of this city, at Los Angeles, Calif.

A new saloon has been opened in Washingtonville, which makes six in this town. There are five in the village.

Friday evening was the first anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cooke. Their friends favored them with a surprise.

E. O. French is a candidate for re-nomination as township clerk. He has been an active Republican for many years.

George Delzmann of Hanoverton has been appointed carrier for the new R. F. D. route to be established there April 1.

Today Philip Wirsching shipped a large organ to Pittsburgh where it will be installed in a church.

Low-Headed Trees Are Better for Orchards

How to prune pears to the best advantage has occupied the attention of horticulturists at the experiment station at Geneva, N. Y., for several years, and certain definite recommendations are now believed to be justified by the results of the station tests. The merits of high and low-headed trees have been compared, and a study made of the effect upon tree growth and fruit production of much and little pruning. Low-headed trees receiving little pruning have proved most satisfactory in all respects, declare the station specialists.

Experiments have been conducted with such well-known varieties as Anjou, Bartlett, Kieffer, Sheldon, Seckel and Lawrence, to study the relative value of high and low heading. Certain of these varieties have also been used in tests of much and little pruning. Low-headed trees produced larger, broader and rather more symmetrical tops than did the high-headed ones. This would be particularly advantageous for an orchard of the Kieffer type. Careful heading and early training are always desirable.

"It can be safely recommended that all varieties of pears will respond most satisfactorily to little pruning than when severely pruned and trained out. Little pruning seems to produce rather more symmetrical tops as well as larger bearing areas. Heavy pruning of pears to stimulate a greater growth, which results in rather bushy growth or sometimes runny and unruly branches and relatively smaller bearing areas."

Aeronauts Don't Land to Receive Messages

The British air service in Mesopotamia has perfected a scheme for delivering written messages to planes without the necessity of their landing and stopping to pick up the documents.

A line is stretched between two poles about six feet high and perhaps twenty feet apart. To this line the message is tied. By spreading large pieces of cloth on the ground in a pre-arranged pattern the pilot of the aircraft is signaled that there is a message for him; the arrangement of the cloth also indicates in what direction he must fly to cross the line between the poles at right angles. If more than one plane is up, the cloth again tells which plane is to receive the message, says the New York World.

The selected plane swoops low over the poles and the pilot dangles a line to the end of which is attached a hook. This engages the line to which the message is tied, and line, message and all are dragged into the air. The pilot reels in his catch as the plane speeds away. If the message is to be delivered the plane simply dives to the point of delivery and drops the message.

The pilots have become very expert at picking up and dropping messages in this fashion.

Cow of Stone Age Unearthed in West

Dredgers working in a western river recently have uncovered what is believed to be the skull of a broad-faced cow which had been buried for at least 50,000 years below the bottom of the stream, says Popular Mechanics. The animal to which the fossil belonged, scientists say, was the forerunner of the buffalo, the cow and others of the bovine family. Horns measuring 20 inches around their base still were attached to the specimen.

Fly 100 Miles an Hour

Four miles in three minutes is the estimated speed of the carrier pigeons, which many bird students believe is the most consistently fast flier among birds. In a recent test at Ghent these pigeons made 100 miles an hour. Plover, godwits and curlews have been known to fly to feeding grounds 22,000 miles away in a single flight. The osprey, or sea hawk, has almost unbelievable speed in swooping down upon its prey.

Fragrant Musk Plant Is Losing Its Scent

Why has the fragrant musk lost its scent? This is the question which many English florists and gardeners have been asking and wondering for 90 years. Formerly this little flower was among the most fragrant in the botanical records. It was originally found by David Douglas in 1826 growing on the margins of the Columbia river, and was exported to various parts of the world from there. When discovered it was sweetly scented. In 1877 the musk was hybridized in England, and although much larger flowers were produced by this artificial method of culture, the flower was often devoid of fragrance. One theory is that the loss of scent dates from this time.

Only in one instance has an odor been recently ascribed to the English musk, and that was in 1917, when the earl of Waldegrave sent a few rare specimens to the Royal Horticultural society in London. Although only seven years have elapsed since the earl made his report, the same plants, unmolested and untransplanted, have already lost their scent.

In addition to the hybridization theory of the loss of the musk's fragrance other ideas have been advanced to account for the discrepancy. One is that the human sense of smell is no longer so acute as formerly and cannot register the flower's odor. Another theory is that the leaves of the musk 50 years ago were very hairy, but after transplantation in alien countries the hairs were lost and with them the scent.

The idea most endorsed by the English botanists, however, is that essential oils, conducing to the flower's fragrance, have been lost in the process of acclimatization.

Old French Wedding Custom Is Revived

An odd old custom was revived last October in the Flemish village of Comines, tucked away in the north of France.

About 1454 the Seigneur Jean de Comines, having been imprisoned after the good old custom by a neighboring prince, managed to reveal his whereabouts by throwing the wooden utensils given him for table use out of the dungeon where he was confined.

When his faithful subjects came to rescue him, he established a fair at which the ceremonial of throwing these "louches"—as the country people still call them—among the crowd was always carried out.

But after a few hundred years of throwing louches the people of Comines got tired of it, and the custom was abandoned. This year, however, some enterprising member of the Comines Rotary club thought it high time to disinter the old tradition, and the white-haired father of the municipality solemnly mounted a platform guarded by two huge and grinning wooden dolls, and hurled the wooden louches into the assembled throng.

Not everyone in the crowd escaped injury, but, according to a French account, "You could see people boasting of the fact that they carried on their heads the marks of the blows received in this rough distribution."—Living Age.

Employment Aids Ignored

Juvenile unemployment centers, established in England by the co-operation of the ministries of education and labor to assist and protect school boys and girls between the ages of fourteen and eighteen, seeking work, have not been entirely successful in Middlesex, England. The object was to enable the youths to better themselves while accepting the "dole" and were compelled to attend classes. The "dole" is the government unemployment stipend, but many of the younger generation, especially the girls, surrendered the "dole" rather than attend classes.

Everything Provided

An old Highland clergyman was lecturing a group of his people in the village hall, and again and again repeated the words: "There will be weeping, wailing, and gnashing of teeth."

A would-be wit at the back of the hall called out: "What about those that have no teeth?"

The minister looked down over his glasses and said with great solemnity and complete conviction: "Teeth will be provided."

The Diva

The poster advertised the world's greatest diva and depicted a very corpulent lady. Members of a crowd assembled were discussing it.

"Queer spelling," ventured one. "Don't they mean diver?"

"I don't think so," declared another. "It is evidently a foreign word for something or other. She's too fat for a diver."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mongols Were Suspicious

It took some persuasion to convince the Mongolian government that the purposes of the Andrews third Asiatic expedition were purely scientific. An elaborate expedition of 28 men, 75 camels and motor cars was not believed to be looking for old bones. A quest for gold and oil was thought more likely.

Embarrassing Prize

Coolidge Wants No "K.O." Punch

When Jack Dempsey, accompanied by his man of affairs, Jack Kearns, was introduced to President Coolidge in the White House, C. Bascom Slemp, Mr. Coolidge's secretary, assured the president Dempsey could knock out a man with a two-inch punch. Mr. Coolidge replied that was two inches more than he wanted Dempsey to punch him. Dempsey and Kearns are shown here as they emerged from the White House and were surrounded by reporters.

"Gets-It" Makes Corns Vanish

Even Surgeons don't cut their own corns. They use "Gets-It" to rid their feet of corns and callous pests. Why should you risk infection or a slip of your razor when it is so easy to end corns and callouses quickly, completely, permanently? A few drops of "Gets-It" stops all corn pain—then the corn loosens so you can peel it right off with never a twinge of hurt. Try it today. J. L. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold everywhere—money-back guarantee.

Senator's Daughter To Be Bride

Miss Evelyn Wadsworth

Miss Evelyn Wadsworth, daughter of United States Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth of New York, on March 1 will become the bride of W. Stuart Symington, Jr. The marriage, which will be one of the most brilliant social functions of the present season in Washington, will be solemnized in the famous old St. John's church in Washington, where Senator and Mrs. Wadsworth were married.

WOMEN! WARNING! DON'T BE FOOLED

Beware! Not all Package Dyes are "Diamond Dyes"

Diamond Dyes

Always ask for "Diamond Dyes" and if you don't see the name "Diamond Dyes" on the package—refuse it—hand it back.
Each 15-cent package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint skirts, dresses, waists, sweaters, stockings, uniforms, coats, draperies, coverings—everything new, even if she has never dyed before. Choose any color at drug store. Refuse substitutes!

ALWAYS STUDYING THE SKY
Work Has Been Made Much Easier Since the Introduction of Celestial Photography.

There continues the discovery of asteroids or minor planets, especially with the aid afforded by celestial photography. Among a vast multitude of stars crowding on a photographic plate one, perhaps, will be seen to have drawn a short, thin line on the plate during its hours of exposure. The astronomer knows at once that it is either an asteroid or a comet. Subsequent observations soon decide the point. Only the more interesting ones are afterward observed with attention, but once discovered they cannot be ignored, and the rapid growth of the flock becomes an embarrassment.

Eros, which at times approaches the earth nearer than any other regular member of the solar system except the moon, and Asteroid No. 588, which at Aphelion is more distant than Jupiter, as far as their orbits are concerned, remain the most interesting members of the entire group and are kept under constant observation whenever circumstances permit.

British Ambassador Arrives, Expressing Friendship For U. S.

New York, Feb. 28.—Expressing his friendship for the United States, Sir Esme Howard, the new British ambassador to this country, succeeding Sir Auckland Geddes, arrived here Wednesday from England.
Never before in the history of the two countries had relations been so cordial and friendly as they are today, he declared.
"I can assure you that you will find in me a true friend of your great country and people," he said.

Two Points of View.
The Brute—Are you doing anything this evening?
She (eagerly)—No, nothing at all.
The Brute—What a terrible waste of time!

A "STACK" of golden brown griddle cakes, well buttered, and maple syrup to top off—could you start the day better?

Schwab Sees Germany Great Nation Again

New York, Feb. 28.—Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Co., who arrived home yesterday on the liner Olympe after a seven weeks' trip in Europe, predicted Germany would get back on her feet and again take her place as one of the powerful nations of the world.

Harold Bachman, the director, is an acknowledged leader in his line, and he has assembled a company of musical stars which gives a program of unequalled merit."

SMALL BEGINNINGS

SHOW BIG RESULTS

Many great enterprises begin in a small way. Many a successful advertiser has begun by using classified advertisement in a modest way. These brought good returns, which enabled the business to be developed, and eventually large advertisements were prominently used. Intelligent use of the little ads in The Salem News either by advertiser or reader will prove a boon.

TOWNSHIP FAILS TO STATE POLICY

Knox Trustees Decision In Highway Paving Plans Not Made Known.

Trustees of Knox township failed to appear before the county commissioners this week to give their decision whether or not the township would for the present finance the grading and temporary surfacing of the Cox Highway, a distance of five miles in Knox township to the Stark county line.

The trustees conferred with the commissioners Monday of last week about this improvement and it was then made plain that if the Knox trustees financed the project to the extent of $42,000 which a 50-cent assessment, which are to be returned to the township, the county and the state would go on shares in putting the brick top on the road a few years later and without additional expense to the township.

Smith township in Mahoning county is to share with Knox township in the improvement of the highway as the road is to be improved 50.50 in each township, just as the Cox Highway is in the eastern part of Columbiana and Mahoning county, the highway paralleling the north and south counties.

Are We Extravagant?

Here are some costs on Studebaker cars—
Would you have us cut them down?

WE are lavish on Studebaker cars. For some features we pay three and four times what they need cost.

Here are some of those costs which affect you. Tell us—would you want any one reduced?

Our prices on high-grade Sixes run from $1025 to $2635. They stand at bottom in the fine-car field, despite these extra costs. All because the demand requires 150,000 cars per year. But they could be lower if we cut these costs. Would you have us do it?

Engineering—$500,000

Our engineering departments cost as $500,000 yearly.

Our Department of Research and Experiment employs 125 skilled men. It spends vast sums in analyses and tests.

Our Bureau of Methods and Standards fixes every formula, every requirement. It makes 500,000 tests per year to maintain our high standards.

We make 30,000 inspections on every Studebaker car during manufacture before it goes out of the factory. We employ 1,200 men to do that.

Those are heavy costs. But remember how they are divided—by 150,000 cars per year. They form but a trifle per car.

$50,000,000 in plants

We have invested $50,000,000 in modern plants and equipment. $8,000,000 in drop forge plants. $10,000,000 in body plants—as the only way to do Studebaker coach work.

These plants are equipped with 12,500 up-to-date machines, many of them very expensive.

But consider the alternative. Profits to other makers. We save up to $300 for you by building Studebaker bodies in our own body-plants.

15% extra on steel

On some steels we pay a bonus of 15% to the maker. Just to get our formulas exact. We could save that extra on "commercial runs."

We are one of the very few builders, either in Europe or America, using crankshafts machined on all surfaces. It costs us $600,000 a year to give you this. But it results in that smoothness of operation, that lack of vibration which characterizes only the most expensive cars.

Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Timken bearings than any car selling under $5,600 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

Don't Buy a Fine Car until you see the leaders

Studebakers hold the top place in the fine-car field today.

Last year, 145,167 people chose them against all rivals. They paid $201,000,000 for them.

For 72 years the Studebaker name has stood for the utmost in quality. It will never stand for less.

Today there are assets of $90,000,000 staked on the Studebaker cars.

Don't pay $1,000 or more for a car without knowing what Studebaker offers. You will find here some scores of advantages. Learn what they mean to you.

Other costly extras

Our bodies are finished with 18 operations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

We use real leather upholstery. We could cut the price of our open models $25.00 were we willing to use imitation instead of genuine leather.

We upholster our closed models in the finest Chase Mohair. Cotton or ordinary wool, or a combination of both, would enable us to reduce our price from $100 to $150 per car. But we would thus sacrifice Studebaker quality and reputation.

The many extras on our large closed cars would cost much if you bought them. The nickel-plated bumpers, the extra disc wheels and cord tires, the steel trunk, the courtesy light, motometer, etc.

Extras to our men

We pay the highest labor scale. Then we add extras to it.

Men who are with us five years or over get 10% of their year's wages in an anniversary check. Those anniversary checks last year cost us $1,300,000.

After two years all employees get a week of vacation with pay. That cost us last year $225,000.

Old employees who retire get pensions.

All this to keep men with us while they grow more and more efficient. To make them happy, so they do their best.

This is all paid by people who buy Studebaker cars. But we figure that each such dollar saves us five dollars. Don't you agree with us?

The utmost in car value

The object is to give you the utmost in car value. You will find we do that if you make comparisons. In any Studebaker model, you will find scores of ways in which it excels any rival car.

That is why, in the fine-car field, the Studebaker leads. The demand has almost trebled in the past three years. These cars have become the sensation of Motordom. On some of these models we have never yet been able to meet the demand.

We spend money lavishly. We build without regard to cost. But, in our quantity production, we still bring costs to bottom.

You should learn what these things mean to you before you buy a car.

You will know them by their olive color. These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Wet Shoes Should Be Kept Away From Heat

It seems to be a natural inclination with the average person when his shoes are wet to place them on a radiator or near the kitchen stove to dry, says an expert on leather, writing in the Shoe Conservator. This is exactly the wrong thing to do. Leather when it is wet is a great deal like wood. Unless the drying process is allowed to take its own natural slow course, it will warp, stiffen and bulge.

With the shoe, of course, these effects are as disastrous as they would be with a piece of furniture or anything where a series of component parts come in contact with each other as they do in a shoe.

The effects of the wetting on the sole may not be the same as on the upper, and the effects of the wetting on the fore part of the sole may not be the same as on the heel, with the result that when they have finally warped and settled, they have probably torn away from each other; to say the least, the shoe would be very uncomfortable.

A shoe that has become water-soaked in any way should be immediately placed on a tree, or if the trees are not available, stuffed with paper or cloths and left to dry in a cool, dry place. In this way the leather will be revitalized by the drying atmosphere and, even though the wetting will have its injurious effects, they will be minimized.

Biggest 10-Cent Store Is Run by Uncle Sam

It is not generally known that Uncle Sam runs the biggest 10-cent store in the world. Printed copies of patents are sold all over this country at 10 cents each to the number of 200,000 a month, says the Kansas City Times. It costs six cents each to print these patents, which is one of the biggest jobs done by the government printing office, the public printer testifies.

He says 50 linotype machines are kept busy eight hours a day. The printing for the patent office costs around $1,000,000 a year, which comes back into the treasury with at least $200,000 profit.

In addition to the 200,000 copies of patents distributed every month 2,000,000 copies are sent to libraries all over this country and to foreign countries in exchange. There are in the patent office, subject to sale, 50,000,000 copies of patents, which makes this the most valuable store in the city of Washington. These have a cost value to the government of $5,000,000 and a sale value of $5,000,000.

Following Orders

A young artist was given permission by the captain of a large ship to get on a staging, slung over the side, for the purpose of getting a better view of another vessel which he wanted to paint.

It was not long after that the captain got into the ship's boat, and shouted up to the deck, "Let go the painter!"—the painter being a rope by which the boat is made fast to the ship.

The order not being obeyed promptly, he shouted again, "Let go the painter."

Instantly a voice replied, "He's gone, sir; brushes, paint and all!"

Merely Incidental

Doctor Rubelink was a qualified M. D., but, settling in a cattle country and finding the demand strong, he had added veterinary work to his other practice.

"Nothing serious," announced the doctor, after examining a valuable bull which he had been summoned posthaste to treat. "Give him one of these powders in a quart of bran mash three times a day."

The rancher heaved a sigh of relief. "Wait," he said, as the M. D. V. S. was about to leave, "I reckon, as long as you're here, you might as well have a look at the old woman. She's been ailing for a month or two."

He Marvelled at It

As the scientists say, it is not easy to tell what is going to impress a stranger when he visits other lands. An Abyssinian prince was delighted with our ice cream cones. An American financier who made a trip to Montreal was asked what impressed him most. He tried to give a faithful answer to this question, thought it over carefully, and then replied: "The fact that Canadian money was accepted without question everywhere I went."

Plan Atlantic Seadromes.

French air experts have worked out plans for the building of floating airplane stations, or seadromes, to dot the Atlantic as jumping-off places and for refueling stations on transatlantic airplane routes. It is proposed to have eight of these between the United States and France, about 400 miles apart. A special system of deep-sea anchorage will make the seadromes feasible, it is said. They will be large enough to allow a plane to alight and take off.

Diplomatic.

Customer—Do you know, I think one of my feet must be larger than the other.

Tactful Assistant—Oh, no, madam, smaller if anything.—Punch.

Badly Handicapped.

Pearl Knosie—Mother, do look at Mrs. Dowd. She's actually eating her salad with her fish fork.

Her Mother—Yes, I see. Poor thing! She has no daughter to guide her.

WOMAN AILING FOR A YEAR

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Happy Results

Newcastle, Pa.—"I was all run-down and everybody thought I was going into a decline. I had been ailing for a year with pains in my right side so that I could hardly stand on my feet. When I walked I felt as if something was falling. I was not able to do any work and had a nurse most of the time. She spoke to me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I gave it a fair trial. Some women think one bottle should cure them, but I did not stop at that. I took more and got better, and am able ever since to do my own housework. There was a time, when I would complain of not feeling well, that my husband would say, 'Go to the doctor.' But now he will tell me to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's, and it has always helped me. I have had druggists tell me that they had something better, but they don't tell me that now, for I take no other. I have been taking the Vegetable Compound now for five years. Any woman who cares to call or write, I will be glad to tell her how it helped me."—Mrs. MABEL LISP, SHERRARD, 615 Newell Ave., Newcastle, Pa. For sale by druggists everywhere.

APPEALS COURT HEARS FEE CASE

Judge Moore Will Follow
Decision In Ferren
Case Ruling.

Judge L. T. Farr has returned to Lisbon from Ravenna, where the court of appeals was in session Monday and Tuesday.

Next week the court of appeals will sit in Youngstown and at that time will hear arguments in the case of the City of East Youngstown against the mayor of that municipality wherein it is sought to have the mayor return certain fees retained by him from state cases and earned due the municipality.

This case is almost parallel with that of the City of East Palestine against Mayor A. W. Ferran and Chief of Police Walter Warren of East Palestine.

The decision of the court of appeals in this action will guide Judge James G. Moore in rendering a decision in the Columbus case, which was argued before the court Tuesday.

A copy of the opinion of the court of appeals in this action will be presented to Judge Moore as soon as the court has rendered its decision.

Experience As Nurse Causes Mrs. Fleming To Endorse Tanlac

Practical Nurse For 16
Years Tells Of Recovery
Thanks To Tanlac—Recommends It
To Patients.

"I would never have believed any medicine on earth could help me like Tanlac did," is the precise statement of Mrs. Celia Fleming, 1915 Addison st., Berkeley, Calif., a practical nurse of sixteen years' experience.

"In 1904 a serious operation weakened my system so I never saw a real well day until I took Tanlac three years ago. I never seemed to be hungry, my stomach was so disordered

I could scarcely retain a thing I ate, and I lost weight till I was almost a shadow. I was anemic and shattered nerves and sleepless nights contributed even more to my ready misérable state."

"Tanalac built up my appetite and digestion wonderfully, and every single ailment went away. Then, with returning strength came a 32-pound increase in weight, and from that day three years ago my health has been splendid. I recommend Tanlac to many of my patients for it is indeed a remarkable medicine."

Tanalac is for sale by a good drug gists. Over 40 million bottles sold. Accept no substitute.

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of ALLENRHU, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

ALLENRHU has been tried and tested for years and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of ALLENRHU who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless ALLENRHU decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. ## OVERDRAWN BANK ACCOUNT SUBJECT TO PROSECUTION

Judge Rules Coid Checks Violate Bad Check Law In Ohio.

Salemites who have written "coid" checks in the last few years, and have refused to make them good will have to pay up in March, state Salem bankers.

All persons who overdraw bank accounts are now subject to criminal prosecution according to a supreme court decision by Judge Florence E. Allen at Columbus on Feb. 19.

It is not necessary for banks to prove that an attempt to defraud had existed when the checks were written so that persons who write the checks, or overdraw their accounts will face prosecution by local banks. Judge Allen's decision makes proof unnecessary other than the existence of the bad check.

Hundreds of people in this state, and some in Salem, have the habit of writing checks regardless of how much money they have in the bank. Now the burden of proof rests on the writer to show that he did not intend to defraud by his checks.

The decision was given against I. M. Lowenstein, Cincinnati garment manufacturer, who was accused of paying employees with bad checks. The supreme court reversed the Hamilton county court that acquitted Lowenstein of having violated the state's bad check law.

UPHOLD VERDICT BY FLIP OF COIN

Columbus, Feb. 28. — Flipping a coin to aid a juror in making up his mind how to vote on a question involving the distribution of money is not viewed by the supreme court as misconduct on the part of the juror.

The supreme court yesterday upheld the decision of the lower courts in the Tuscarawas county case of Charles Schwab and others against William Grace and others. Plaintiffs in error brought suit to set aside the verdict of the jury, which gave only $500 to the children, and left the remainder of the real and personal property to the defendant in error.

Common law court returned a verdict sustaining the will. The plaintiffs in error filed a motion for a new trial, alleging that one of the nine jurors who signed the verdict was guilty of misconduct in that he arrived at a decision to sign the verdict, by taking a chance on the tip of a coin.

A motion for a new trial was supported by affidavits of two jurors who did not sign the verdict.

Boatload Of Babies Arrives In New York

New York, Feb. 28. — A boatload of babies and older youngsters, 506 of them, arrived in New York today on the Conte Verde from Italian ports.

The children came to join their parents in the United States. A recent immigration decision permits the admission, in excess of quota limits, of wives and minor children of Italians who are naturalized citizens and American residents.

The vessel also carried 500 adult passengers.

GET FEDERAL AID FOR COUNTY ROAD

Road Between Salineville And Wellsville To Be Paved This Year.

Surfacing of that section of the Wellsville-Salineville rd. in Washington township from the intersection of the main road and the Gardise siding route seems assured for this year as the state highway department has indicated that as soon as the county commissioners make proper record on their journal, $27,000 of federal aid money would be set aside for this job.

It is recalled that such aid was promised this county by the state highway department some months ago, but this week State Highway Director L. A. Boulay advised the commissioners that the federal aid was assured.

There have been no new developments in the proceedings against the improvement of this road in Yellow Creek township, and none are likely to follow until after the re-hearing on this section of road which is scheduled for March 7. According to information received in Lisbon, however, sentiment for the improvement of the Chattle Lake route is rather strong, because of the low grade possible over this route.

The state highway department has set Aug. 1 next as the date for completion of that section of the East Liverpool-Youngstown Inter-city highway in Liverpool township, from Riverview cemetery north to the St. Clair-Liverpool township line. The distance of highway to be improved is 1.96 miles and the estimated cost has been placed at $38,265.85, of which amount Liverpool township has financed $19,500 as its share of the cost.

GALVANI REMAINS ALL WEEK; GREAT CROWDS SEE HIM

Galvani, the eminent hypnotist had another large audience at the Grand last night and has proven to be such an unusual attraction that the management has arranged to hold him over for the remainder of the week. Mr. Galvani will remain at the Grand, Gladys Walton in the "Wild Party," will occupy the screen tonight.

Child-birth

WHEN the little one arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the instant remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mr. C. J. Harman, Scranton, Pa. says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse. I had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes. 'Mother's Friend' is our mothers and grandmothers old friend. It's the best thing I ever saw. I write to Broadland Regulator Co., B.A. 75, Atlanta, Ga. for a free illustrated book containing information, every expectant mother should have. 'Mother's Friend' is sold by all drug stores—everywhere."

Salem Hi. Must Fight To Win Friday

Now on the last two weeks of a schedule that has been as arduous for the players as it has been interesting for spectators, Salem High's two cage teams will go into battle with Lisbon High Friday night at Lisbon.

The last game has been seen here, unless a special game is arranged later. That means that Salem High must go without the support of those hundreds of fans that pack the gym here for the rest of the year.

Lisbon is the next county school to face, and then East Palestine. Both games mean a lot, although they appear easy for Salem on paper.

The Red and Black Boys have no chance to win the county title. East Liverpool, its season over, has secured that, but what Salem can do is to be the runner-up, and that can be done by winning both the Lisbon and Palestine games, and for a practically green team that will be a fine feat.

Girls Must Fight

Coach Kichtman so far has had a successful year in Salem. His teams at time torn by ineptitude and sickness, he has nevertheless turned out teams from both of green men that stand head to head with veteran teams in other towns, and have brought much praise to the Garfield ave. school.

SHORT SPORT SHOTS

LOCK BACK 20 YEARS

Twenty-one years ago Wednesday afternoon Jack Johnson, a big colored bruiser nearing the height of his fame, defeated Sam McVey, contender for the heavyweight world's title, after 20 rounds of grueling fighting in a Los Angeles ring.

Can you stretch your memory back that far? Some of you older fans remember Jack and Sam as two top-notchers who would give and take in any fight. Can you follow them down the line, to their final resting places out of the pale of big fighting? Johnson was the more famous of the two. He won and lost his title fighting game, but when he lost he seemed to sink down to oblivion, accompanied with a tiff with the law.

McAULIFFE STILL BOXING

That reminds me of the boxing. On Feb. 27, 1886, Jack McAuliffe took Jack Hepper into camp in New York. Today Jack is still at it. Look at Jack Britton, Johnny Kilbane, Jesse Willard, and others, some still at it, some down and out, but still fighters, every inch of them, despite their gray hairs.

CONCERNING BOOING

Can boeing be stopped at any kind of a sport contest, some one asked at a recent basketball game here. We doubt it. Sports make the spectator, if he has any kind of interest in the contest at hand, "pour oil steam" at times. A person watching a thrilling football game, boxing match, or what not, will yell unknowingly many times, so excited does he become. If he for that passing moment thinks the official is "a robber, thief, etc.," it is merely impulsive action on his part that he doesn't really mean.

That is a defense for the ordinary spectator. The defense is not for the continual "economy" howl, the hum spect, or for any aggressive case.

WELCOME, KING BASEBALL

We come spry with the mud slush, marbles, rain, muck, daylight and little Edgar's supper and no laces, comes good old King Baseball with the usual pre-season gossip and rumors.

Here in Salem all is quiet. Perhaps there will be a strong independent team here this year. Perhaps we will have a shoe league, a fraternal league, or both. Or we may not have an team. Time will tell. The spirit will move somebody soon.

IN RETROSPECT

Not long ago we witnessed a fight in Yonnetown between Louis and Louis De Arce. Some called it either way, or a draw, for the fight was close, for stalling. On March 11 Stas will meet Carl Talmadge, head of the stable from the De Arce camp. This will have to be a real fight, and no hanging match, or it will cost Al Zill a lot of money.

DEMPSEY-FIRPO PICTURES TO BE SHOWN AT STATE

Will Lila Firpo be able to recover when he and Jack Dempsey meet more in an engagement for the heat-weight championship of the world? Will Firpo, the only man to knock down the champion since he won it?

Modern Life Exacts Its Price

We live hard lives, work our eyes tender and put them under greater strain than any other organ of the body.

Were we to subject other organs to such strain, serious complications would be certain to result. This is a question for extremely careful consideration.

On the other hand, the Girls team is practically sure of winning the county title, unless these last two games are lost, which will not be the case, the girls say. Coach Rohrbach certainly has had it tough. First the soaked floor nearly broke up the season. Then sickness claimed two players. And now "Danny" Williams, supreme player who has no equal, has been caught temporarily in scholastic difficulties.

Fans to Follow Teams
But Rohrbach is not unnerved, nor are the girls, those that are left, downhearted. Optimism in great big gobs is present in the Girls camp, and to say the least a victory is looked for Friday.

The Lisbon Girls' team has had a fairly successful season, while the county seat boys have not won a county game. It looks like a real battle for the girls, while the boys ought to win easily, though they will have to work for it.

Because of its nearness, Lisbon will be the mecca of Salem fans Friday night. There are several hundred that have promised to be on hand for the two contests.

The teams will need the support of every fan that can go. To finish the season strong, the teams hope for, and they will do their best.

Because of its nearness, Lisbon will be the mecca of Salem fans Friday night. There are several hundred that have promised to be on hand for the two contests.

Fight fans of Salem will be able to answer this question to their own satisfaction after viewing the pictures of the Dempsey-Firpo battle, which are being shown at the Grand theater for an engagement of three nights starting Monday.

To this day Dempsey declares that he was not knocked through the ropes. He insists that he was off balance when Firpo landed a wild swing, pushing him out of the squared circle. On the other hand, Firpo insists that he knocked the champion out with a fair blow. More than that, he declares that Dempsey was disqualified when spectators held him back into the ring. Finally, he stated after the fight that he should have been awarded the title, since more than ten seconds passed before Dempsey was back in the ring.

The pictures do not lie—at least not the pictures shown at these do not. Every incident of the battle is reproduced from the best shots secured by a battery of 12 cameras. Each incident of the first round is shown in fast and slow motion. Dempsey's four knockdowns are there. So is Firpo's terrific blow and the disappearance of the champion, head foremost.

Fight fans of this city can do no better than to view these pictures and form their own opinion as to just what occurred and what the relative merits of the two men really are. Slow motion does much to assist them in this, as they are enabled to study each blow and diagnose every action.

COMMISSION WILL RULE ROPED ARENA WITH IRON HAND

Lynch And Walker Assure Officials They Will Fight Choices.

New York, Feb. 28.—The New York boxing commission is going to rule fast circles with an iron hand. There is going to be no dilly-dallying between members and rules will be formulated that no fighter will be able to dodge, on penalty of suspension.

The commission is going to see to it that there will be "no set up" boys in which the stars, or near stars, will compete. The commission has ruled that the champions in their various classes must fight or feel the iron hand of discipline.

Under the new order of things, two champions—Joe Lynch, bantamweight, and Mickey Walker, welterweight—have given the commission assurances that they will be seen in the ring in the near future defending their titles against opponents worthy of fighting for the crowns. The two champions, who have been under the ban because they declined to meet their opponents selected for them, have promised to meet fighters selected by the commission.

Lynch will meet Abe Godstein on March 21. Walker will meet the best boy in his class on or near March 1. The committee ruled however that neither bout be held in New York, that being left to discretion of the champions, but if held in any other state the bout must be a decision. Both bouts undoubtedly will be held in New York.

Paul Berlenbach, knockout king is not going to have any soft marks in the future. The board has decreed that Jack Stone, who was expected to hit the canvas in next Monday night's bout with Berlenbach, was not a suitable opponent. This ruling will mean that if Berlenbach wants to mount the fistic ladder he will have to climb the rungs over top notches and not set ups.

Incidentally the ticket scandal involving Tom O'Rourke's charges against Tex Rickard is going to be given a thorough probing by the commission. As Chairman Bower of the commission stated, "Action will be taken which will fit the developments."

If the commission's investigation justifies criminal prosecution, that prospect will be pushed, according to operation with Western Reserve university college for women, March 11 and 15.

That "mysterious something" reflected by women who look different—a difference which is always noted and frequently remarked—is really the art of knowing how to get one's self up—according to their individual type. Those who don't know or don't care and use toilettries regardless of their individual type of skin, never reflect the charm possessed by the other woman who knows.
